The Importance of Sleep for Teenagers

Sleep plays a crucial role in the lives of teenagers. It is during sleep that their bodies grow, their minds develop, and their energy is restored. Teenagers usually require around 8 to 10 hours of sleep each night to function well. However, many young people do not sleep enough because of school demands, social commitments, and late-night use of electronic devices.

One major factor that can disrupt a teenager's sleep is the use of phones, tablets, or computers before bedtime. The bright light from these screens can prevent the body from creating melatonin, a hormone that helps the body to sleep. As a result, teenagers may have trouble falling asleep quickly and feel exhausted the next day.

Lack of sleep can have detrimental effects. Teenagers who do not get enough rest may find it hard to focus in school, experience mood swings, and even face long-term health issues. On the contrary, those who maintain healthy sleep habits are more likely to do better at school, feel emotionally balanced, and enjoy better physical health.

Parents and teachers can support teenagers by encouraging them to establish a consistent sleep routine and avoid electronic devices before sleeping. Although developing these habits requires effort, the long-term benefits are undeniable.

Question 31. What is the main idea of the reading passage?

- A. Teenagers should stop using electronic devices completely.
- B. Sleep is important for teenagers' physical and mental well-being.
- C. Teenagers should study more instead of sleeping.

D. Parents should control their children's use of social media.

Question 32. The word 'disrupt' in paragraph 2 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

- A. disturb B. interrupt C. support D. delay

Question 33. Why do electronic devices affect teenagers' sleep, according to the passage?

- A. They make teenagers feel more relaxed.
B. They stop the production of melatonin.
C. They help teenagers fall asleep faster.
D. They make teenagers physically tired.

Question 34. Which example is NOT mentioned in the text?

- A. Impact of electronic devices on sleep
B. Health risks of poor sleep
C. Teenagers' social life problems
D. Academic performance and sleep

Question 35. What final comment does the author make about teenagers' sleep?

- A. Teenagers should avoid social activities.
B. Parents should let teenagers sleep during the day.
C. Sleep is not very important for teenagers.
D. Following a sleep routine will help teenagers in the long term.

Question 36. The word mood swings in paragraph 3 is CLOSEST in meaning to

- A. changes in feelings
B. serious health problems
C. good emotions
D. stress from school
